

Lori Vosika, MSW, CSW-PIP

Master in Social Work from George Warren Brown May 1991 graduating cum laude starting my AF/Social Work career joining during 1st Desert Storm commissioning out of graduate school.

22yrs Air Force Mental Health Officer spending first five years of career on active duty and since 1996 served in the Air Force Reserves.

While in Air Force Reserve, Vosika returned to Active Duty five times since 9/11 spending tours at Ellsworth AFB, Malstrom AFB and Manas Transit Center in Kyrgyzstan serving service members from all branches and their families in their pre and post deployment reintegration needs.

Retired Dec 31, 2013 as Lt Col.

Vosika has worked at the VA Black Hills Health Care System since 1996 where she has held various Social Work positions including work in substance abuse and PTSD; acute medicine and has been in current position as OEF/OIF/OND Program Manager since 2009.